PACKING LIST

Casual clothing (shorts and t-shirts) for four days. Please no spaghetti straps, and no clothing advertising alcohol, tobacco or suggestive sayings. If clothing is deemed inappropriate or revealing, a camper may be required to change.

Swimsuit and towel. Girls and guys must wear a t-shirt and shorts over their bathing suit when traveling to and from the pool and/or lake front. Girls are asked to wear a modest one piece. If a girl must wear a two piece, a dark colored t-shirt must be worn over it at all times.

Clothing for evening worship. We have the "no knee cap" rule for evening worship only. This means that either long pants, long dress or skirt should be worn. When you sit down, your kneecaps should not show.

Tennis shoes for Rec. The 4 story Hexapod requires closed toed shoes to climb. And you will want tennis shoes for team Rec.

Pillow and bedding for a twin bunk bed. (Sheets, a blanket, a sleeping bag)

Towels and washcloths for showering in the cabin.

Toiletries (shampoo, soap, deodorant, toothbrush, toothpaste, etc...)

Bible, notepad and pen

Sunscreen

Bug Spray

Flashlight

Facemask

Spending money for snack shack and gift shop. (Snack shack items range from .50 to $2 and items in the gift shop start at .50 up to $25 or more)

What NOT to bring cell phones, all electronics, video games, etc...

drugs, alcohol, tobacco

magazines

Weapons of any kind

Inappropriate clothing

Bad Attitude

Questions?
Email:
Allen (allenfrans@yahoo.com)
Sherry (Sherry@centralrr.com)
Jared (Jared @ central.com)