MISSIONS

Day 3

Rift Valley Academy
The Jewell Family

The idea for Rift Valley Academy was starting in 1906 by Charles Hurlburt so he could serve on the mission field with Africa Inland Mission and keep his family with him.

In 1909, US President Teddy Roosevelt laid the cornerstone of the main building, Kiambogo.

Today, RVA serves about 500 students from the Americas, Africa, Asia, Europe, and Australia.

The Jewel Family are missionaries with Africa Inland Mission.

David and Ashley serve as a teacher, nurse and house parents with the Africa Inland Mission at the Rift Valley Academy in Kenya.

In addition to these jobs, David and Ashley host 12, 8th grade boys as dorm parents along with raising their two kids.

David and Ashley believe that God has called them to help educate and give wisdom to the next generation of African Missionaries, the kids in their dorm and at the school.

If any of you lacks wisdom, you should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to you. – James 1:5

I don't like school. Why is it important to learn?

Titus 3:14

Our people must learn to devote themselves to doing what is good, in order to provide for urgent needs and not live unproductive lives.

School is too hard for me, I need help.

Psalm 111:10

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; all who follow his precepts have good understanding. To him belongs eternal praise.

How can I find wisdom for me?

James 1:5

If any of you lacks wisdom, you should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to you.

If someone takes the time to explain something that I don't understand to me, should I take the time to explain something to someone else?

Do good!
Seek peace and go after it!
